Prayer of the week (August 2nd)

O Lord our God, you give us the true bread that comes down from heaven, even your son Jesus Christ our Lord; grant that as we receive him into our lives we may be filled with the fullness of his love and abide in him as he abides in us; through the same Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever. Amen.

Young people and children - We will all stay together in the church today. (See back of Notice Sheet)

Thought for the week

"...anxiety is just groundless and pointless. It occurs only as a hangover of bad habits established when we were trusting things—like human approval and wealth—that were certain to let us down. Now our strategy should be one of resolute rejection of worry, while we concentrate on the future in hope and with prayer and on the past with thanksgiving. Dallas Willard
