NEWS

General Synod Decision on Marriage

The General Synod voted with a clear majority to remove any definition of marriage from the Canon on marriage. This will allow those clergy who wish to marry couple of the same gender to do so. This is now given to the Committee on Canons to draft a new canon which will be brought to General Synod in June 2016 for first reading and then to the diocese in March 2017 and for a second and final reading to the General Synod in June 2017 when it will then be voted on finally. I along with a few others argued against this change and the link below is to a statement that those of us who have dissented from this decision have signed.

Paper copies of the Synod discussion are available at the back of the church.

TODAY Sunday 28th June

The Scottish Episcopal Church (SEC) Community Fund annual Gift Day, The Community fund gives small and immediate grants to those who cannot find help from any other source for items such as beds, bedding, clothing and large white goods. Grants are made on the recommendation of clergy or organisations such as One Parent Families Scotland and Social Work departments in Scotland.

A few years ago the Vestry decided that all loose cash in the collection plates on the last Sunday in June would be sent as our donation to the fund. If you would like to make a donation and you won't be here on 28 June, please put your cash donation in an envelope and label it Community Fund, and either put it in the plate or send it to the office. Many thanks.
